Well...

A A7/Bb Bm#9 E7
He was down so very low, no one understood,
Unemployed and lonely and his life was no damn good,

A A7 F#7 B7
An apple mac for company was all that he could find,
E7

So, he's sitting on the internet downloading his good times.

A A7/Bb Bm#9 E7 A A7/Bb Bm#9 E7
Down low, down downloading his good times.

250 million websites, with everything he could hope to see,
100 petabytes per day cross the planet digitally,
A universe of data should make a stimulated mind,
But he's sitting on the internet downloading his good times.

Now internet addiction's an affliction of the modern day,
Entangled in the web the addict gets his kicks by clicking all his time away,
Yeah and his life just passes by,
As he's sitting on the internet downloading his good times.

Down low, down downloading his good times.
Maybe too many good times.

F#m B7
All the lonely people, seeking company,
G E7
Want someone to type to so the internet's the place to be.

Hell, it changed communication, made the fax machine deceased,
Who predicted Twitter would bring revolutions to the Middle East,
3 billion folks are living happily online,
Sitting on the internet downloading their good times.

Now there's good and bad that comes from every type of new technology,
One quarter of all searches are for pornography,
Set your private browser and nobody will find,
The history of where you've been downloading your good times.

Down low, down downloading your good times.
Your dirty, dirty good times.

You can choose whatever suits your mood,
I always go for something clever, never nothing rude,

I'll only watch a sex scene on a nature documentary,
Only click on anal reading up on OCD,
If I want some hardcore I'll give string theory a try,
Sitting on the internet downloading my good times.

A three way or mass debate on special relativity,
Hot brunettes on the open university,
I like a big bang, not a gang bang video by Richard Feynman,
Sitting on the internet downloading my good times man.
